Despite being raised as a noble for fourteen years, Annas not about to let her new status change get her down. She may have lost all that she had known at the whims of a capricious fairy, but shes determined to show that her year of preparation wasnt all for naught! However, the commoner life is far more different than she had expected. When Anna is faced with a whirlwind of unfamiliar experiences among a family she hardly knows, can she adapt to her new situation?
