Previously published; newly refreshed by author. The Chase boys. Ridiculously hot and notoriously single. All of Petal, Georgia, is waiting for the last Chase brother to fall. At least, that's how it feels to firefighter Matt Chase, who's getting a little anxious himself. His brothers have all found love, why hasn't he? But fate, in the form of a curvaceous hairdresser, is about to change that. Salon owner Tate Murphy has come a long way from her trailer-park roots, taking care of her seven siblings along the way. Even though she's put the past behind her, she knows someone like Matt Chase is way out of her league. But that doesn't stop her from getting a good eyeful every chance she gets. When a car accident throws them together, Tate gets more than an eyeful; she gets the whole package. Not that she's complaining. But when small-town bias and her own insecurities get in the way of their relationship, Matt will have to prove he doesn't care where she came from or only where she goes. The Chase is on. One small town. Four hot brothers. And enough heat to burn up anyone who dares to get close. Don't miss the other books in the series: Taking Chase, Giving Chase and Chased. This book is approximately 70,000 words. Edited by Angela James
