An emotional and romantic tale of the darker side of human nature from the New York Times bestselling author of My Highland Rogue (Fresh Fiction). Haunted by the mysterious death of his two brothers, Grant Roberson, 10th Earl of Straithern, fears for his life. Determined to produce an heir before it's too late, Grant has promised to wed a woman he has never met. But instead of being enticed by his bride-to-be, Grant can't fight his attraction to understated beauty and wit of her paid companion. Gillian Cameron long ago learned the danger of falling in love. Now, as the companion to a spoiled bluestocking, she has learned to keep a firm hold on her emotions. But, from the moment she meets him, she is powerless to resist the alluring and handsome earl. Fighting their attraction, Gillian and Grant must band together to stop an unknown enemy from striking. Will the threat of danger be enough to make them realize their true feelings? Praise for Karen Ranney: Karen Ranney writes with power, passion, and dramatic flair. Stephanie Laurens, #1 New York Times bestselling author. A writer of rare intelligence and sensitivity. Mary Jo Putney, New York Times bestselling author.
