Newbery Honor Book. A gripping, compassionate portrayal of a boys struggle with conscience (Kirkus) by bestselling author Marion Dane Bauer. While on a bike trip, Joels best friend Tony drowns while they are swimming in the forbidden, treacherous Vermilion River. Joel is terrified at having to tell of his disobedience and overwhelmed by his feelings of guilt, even though the daring act was Tonys idea, and Joel didnt know that Tony couldnt swim. But Joels loving and protective father will help him deal with the tragic aftermath and understand that we all must live with the choices we make. A powerful, soul-stirring novel told simply and well. Booklist (starred review) This is a devastating but beautifully written story of a boys all-consuming guilt over the role he plays in the death of his best friend. Bauers honest and gripping novel joins the ranks of such as Katherine Patersons Bridge to Terabithia in its handling of these issues. Publishers Weekly Descriptions are vivid, characterization and dialogue natural, and the style taut but unforced. A powerful, moving book. School Library Journal
