I had the world.Then he told me he wanted a divorce.I was the first female hockey player in the NHL. I'd broken barriers, kicked butt on the ice, made a family out of a group of grumpy misfits... But I couldn't keep my marriage together.I wasn't enough for the man who said he'd love me forever. And now, as strong as I wanted to pretend I was, I wanted to give up, move on, forget everything there was about Stefan. Only... Then I found out the real reason he'd left me. And I knew there had never been any game more important in my life than winning my ex-husband's heart a second time.
