Logan Marshall is not looking for the girl who betrayed him as a Union spy during the war, but when their paths cross again, he is not about to let her go. All grown up, Mary Catherine McCleary is now the toast of the New York theater scene as the accomplished actress Katy Dakota. But changing her name does not change her past, and she has never forgotten Logan, her first love and enemy. Katy knows what Logan intends to claim. His revenge will be as damning as it will be exquisite. She could run, she could disappear, but is being a prisoner of Logan's passion any worse than what she did to him? Special Author's Cut Edition Previously Titled: Passion's Sweet Revenge
