Three weeks on tour with the British boy band Lasso the Moon seem like the perfect antidote to seventeen-year-old Kylee Kerry's ruined summer plans after she breaks her ankle in a pickup soccer game. Having an older sister who's engaged to one of the lead singers has its perks, after all. While front row seats and backstage passes are as fabulous as they sound, road life turns out to be more grueling than glamorous. Long days, photographers, crazy fans, and a walking boot leave Kylee exhausted. Plus, she immediately gets on the bad side of the infamous heartbreaker of the band, Edmund Graham. When Edmund begins to take an interest in Kylee's faith, she starts to see past his celebrity persona, but will the rumors about him turn out to be true after all?
