Finding a husband is serious business. And serious business requires serious planning. Charity Raber is one of many single women who came to Birch Creek, Ohio, with one goal in mind secure a husband from among the desperate bachelors a newspaper advertisement claimed inhabited the town. Even though that claim proved to be nothing more than a cruel prank, Charity is still hopeful that her happy ending might be within reach when shes set up on a date with Jesse Bontrager. That is until Jesse not-so-gently shares that he has no interest in a relationship with anyoneand especially not with her. One year later, Charity is working as a caretaker for a kind, elderly English woman in the nearby town of Marigold. Shes also working hard on a brand-new courtship plan. A plan that absolutely does not involve Jesse Bontrager. But when he moves next door and is made aware of her scheming, Charity vows to prove that her plan is foolproof. Meanwhile, Jesse is sure shell make a fool of herself. And for some reason hes not willing to let that happen. This stubborn bachelor and determined bachelorette will soon learn that their plans rarely work out as expected but Gods plans always will. Sweet Amish romance The first book in the Amish of Marigold series Book length 87,000 words Includes discussion questions for book clubs
