For readers of Lilac Girls and The Nightingale comes an internationally bestselling World War II novel that spans generations, crosses oceans, and proves just how much two young women are willing to sacrifice for love and family. 1940 As the Germans advance upon Paris, young seamstress Estella Bisette is forced to flee everything she's ever known. She's bound for New York City with her signature gold dress, a few francs, and a dream to make her mark on the world of fashion. Present day Fabienne Bisette journeys to the Met's annual gala for an exhibit featuring the work of her ailing grandmother - a legend of women's fashion design. But as Fabienne begins to learn more about her beloved grandmother's past, she uncovers a story of tragedy, heartbreak and family secrets that will dramatically change her own life.
