With gentleman sleuth Albert Campion on the case and plenty of European intrigue, Sweet Danger is for the connoisseur of detective fiction (Sunday Times). Nestled along the Adriatic coastline, the kingdom of Averno has suddenly and suspiciously become the hottest property in Europe, and Albert Campion is given the task of recovering the long-missing proofs of ownership. His mission takes him from the French Riviera to the sleepy village of Pontisbright, where he meets the flame-haired Amanda Fitton. Her family claim to be the rightful heirs to the principality, and insist on joining Campion's quest. Unfortunately for them, a criminal financier and his heavies are also on the trail. The clock is ticking for Campion and his cohorts to outwit the thugs and solve the mystery of Averno. Margery Allingham stands out like a shining light. And she has another quality, not usually associated with crime stories, elegance. Agatha Christie The best of mystery writers. The New Yorker
