A killer targets Shakespeare-loving tourists in the New York Times bestselling mystery series full of vivacity, charm, and wit (Kirkus Reviews). The Dirty Duck is a pub in Shakespeares beloved Stratford-on-Avon, and its here that Miss Gwendolyn Bracegirdle of Sarasota, Florida fresh from a performance of As You Like It takes her last drink. Mere minutes later she is slashed ear to ear. The only clue to this baffling and brutal murder is a pair of lines from an unknown poem printed across a theater program. It seems that a razor-happy killer is stalking a group of rich American tourists. And Scotland Yard Superintendent Richard Jury, just passing through Stratford for a glimpse of the intriguing Lady Kennington, finds himself taking a crash course in the bloodier side of Elizabethan verse.
