| "A marvelously full-flavored, engrossing book, which towers over its current rivals in the genre like a three-decker over a |
| ship's longboat."Times Literary Supplement Captain Jack Aubrey arrives in the Dutch East Indies to find himself appointed   |
| to the command of the fastest and best-armed frigate in the British Navy. He and his friend, surgeon Stephen Maturin, take  |
| passage for England in a dispatch vessel. But before they can reach their destination, the War of 1812 breaks out. Bloody   |
| conflict precipitates them into new and unexpected predicaments where Maturin is reunited with his embattled love, Diana    |
| Villiers, and his past activities as a secret agent blow back on him with a vengeance.                                      |
