A New York Times Bestseller The Last Magician meets The Ladys Guide to Petticoats and Piracy in this spectacular, singular, and spellbinding (Casey McQuiston, New York Times bestselling author of Red, Whites attacked and a man ends up dead at her feather scissors in his neck, and she cant explain how they got there. Before she can be condemned as a murderess, two cape-wearing nurses arrive to inform her she is deathly ill and ordered to report to Haxahaven Sanitarium. But Frances finds Haxahaven isnt a sanitarium at all its a school for witches. Within Haxahavens glittering walls, Frances finds the sisterhood she craves, but the headmistress warns Frances that magic is dangerous. Frances has no interest in the small, safe magic of her school, and is instead enchanted by Finn, a boy with magic himself who appears in her dreams and tells her he can teach her all shes been craving to learn, lessons that may bring her closer to discovering what truly happened to her brother. Frances newfound power attracts the attention of the leader of an ancient order who yearns for magical control of Manhattan. And who will stop at nothing to have Frances by his side. Frances must ultimately choose what matters more, justice for her murdered brother and her growing feelings for Finn, or the safety of her city and fellow witches. What price would she pay for power, and what if the truth is more terrible than she ever imagined?
