He wanted peace. He found a life-changing adventure... Tristan Blake's time in the army left him scarred and broken. Now that he's home from war, the atheist bishop's son wants nothing more than the peace and quiet of the New Zealand coast. When a Maori priest named Rau offers him a lift, neither of them expect a ride that could change their lives forever. On a beach up north, a mysterious man scores Rau a colossal snapper with no bait. As Joshua joins the atheist and the priest on their journey to the heart of the nation, Tristan is surprised by his provocative friendship. As word of the jean-sporting guru spreads, the prime minister and Tristan's father take notice... Tristan is left with a choice: follow a man who demands love that could transform his life, or thwart Joshua's influence by doing the unthinkable... A New Kind of Zeal is a spiritual and psychological suspense novel for people of all walks of life. If you enjoy compelling characters, a new take on ancient teachings, and stories with a New Zealand flair, then you'll love Michelle Warren's book of faith under fire.
