Funky hippy inspired space bovine, Holly Starchild, was living her best partying life in San Francisco until a million or so miles away on the moon base a group of rowdy students released the fanatical bull beast and would be bovine dictator, Lord Cadmow.This wicked power crazed bovine with his love of biscuits (that's cookies to you american folk) and horn wax merrily brings chaos to the human race using herds of deadly cyborg bovines known as Doomsday Daisybells.As humanity is shaken by the moo inspired onslaught a wave of anti-cow hate sweeps the world.Holly must use her groovy peace loving ways and love of funky music to help an eccentric band of humans turn the tide of humanities fortunes while staying true to her peaceful beliefs. Make milk not war!
