Revisit the beginning of New York Times bestselling author Karen Whites signature style in one of her earliest novels a story about a love that defies time... IN THE SHADOW OF THE MOON When Laura Truitt first sees the dilapidated plantation house, shes overcome by a sense of familiarity. Inside, the owner claims to have been waiting for years and offers an old photograph of a woman with Lauras face. Soon afterwards, when a lunar eclipse inexplicably thrusts Laura back in time to Civil War Georgia, she finds herself fighting not just for her heart, but for her very survival. Includes an exclusive preview of Karen Whites next hardcover Praise for Karen White There is a rhythm to the writing of Karen White. It has a pace, a beat, a cadence that is all its own. The Huffington Post The ultimate voice of womens fiction. Fresh Fiction Whites dizzying carousel of a plot keeps those pages turning, so much so that the book can and should be finished in one afternoon. Oprah.com This is storytelling of the highest order: the kind of book that leaves you both deeply satisfied and aching for more. Beatriz Williams, New York Times bestselling author
