Colin Novak is the big man on campus. Huge-if the rumors are to be believed. Nearly every girl at Davidson University has had a ride on him . . . everyone, except me.Which is fine. This frat boy may be irritatingly hot, all carved muscle with a deceptively wholesome smile, but that's irrelevant. He's a Sig.When I catch his fraternity cheating at the Greek Week tournament, he denies it-causing our rivalry between houses to escalate. Colin and I may have started the mud fight, but it grows into an all-out war, and ends with us expelled from our houses.Now I'm homeless and it's all his fault.So, while answering an ad for a leading role at an adult film company wasn't part of my career path, the work comes with a lot of perks. Steady salary. Accommodations close to campus. A safe place to explore my fantasies.Except when I show up for my audition, my partner is none other than my new archenemy-Colin. And our sexual chemistry is explosive.We hate how attracted we are to each other, and I despise that I want every scene to be with him. Because the longer we live together, the more I see he's not who I thought he was.This frat boy was so easy to hate . . . but what if he's even easier to love?
