Part 2. How to Move Spotify Music to Rekordbox

The most important part has been completed, and now you could sync Spotify music to Rekordbox for mixing. The process of importing tracks into Rekordbox is pretty easy and simply follow the steps below.

Select Spotify Songs from Hard Drive to Rekordbox

1. Select Spotify music files that you want to import into Rekordbox from the local music folder.

2. Confirm the Collection icon on the left of the playlist is highlighted. Then drag audios into the track window which locates on the bottom of the Rekordbox screen.

3. After Rekordbox analyzed these local files, you can drag these songs into the playlist of Rekordbox.

Import Spotify Songs from iTunes to Rekordbox

1. Go to the iTunes icon and tap on the arrow to see the detailed selections.

2. You can search for songs in your entire music collection, or in the playlists that made in iTunes.

3. Once you've found the Spotify songs or playlists that you need, Rekordbox will import them into its music collection. Also, it will add the track data, waveforms, and so forth.
