Through prayer, invite Jesus Christ to come in and control your life through the Holy By Kenneth E. Hagin. The first of these convictions is that we are, by our very nature, dependent on our Maker. This series by Kenneth E. Hagin features never-before-released teaching that will help you understand Walking in God's Guidance—(Proverbs) Learning to Let God Be God. The "Letting God Be God" Bible study guides are based on three basic convictions. ou on the cross and rose from the grave. Believe that Jesus Christ died for you on the ide what you want from God and then find the scripture that promises you that. It doesn't matter if there's no evidence yet; faith is a tangible force that will hold on to it and make it come to pass (Hebrews). It's yours! Tell It f God." John HOW TO RECEI. Believe that Jesus Christ died for you on the cross and rose from the HOW TO RECEIVE CHRIST. We receive from the Lord in the same way that people in the Bible received from the Lord—whether it is salvation, healing, the baptism in the Holy Spirit, or some other gift God has provided. We receive by faith. Know the will (Word) of God for that particular need or challe nge. We need God. We need God's help with the daily challenges of life Admit your need (I am a sinner) Be willing to turn from your sins, and ask God to forgive you (repent)Believe that Jesus Christ died for you on the cross and rose from the graveThrough prayer, invite Jesus Christ to come in and control your life through the Holy Spirit (receive Christ as Lord and Savior) Know that whatever you've asked for and put your faith to, you will receive. There's no reason to guit or back down. Admit your need (I am a sinner). Believe that Jesus Christ died fo. Will you ask, receive, speak and worship God in the prayer language that God gives you? Be willing to turn from you. This fact is emphasized in James -7, which tells us what to do if we are lacking something in our life CHRIST Admit your need (I am a sinner). Yes, I will speak, but the Holy Spirit will give me the utterance (the language) Admit your need (I am a sinner).
