I have never taken an Intro Psyc or Sociology course before, so I relied entirely and solely on Khan Academy videos and found it prepared me. The videos and associated questions were created by the Khan. If you're overwhelmed by the seemingly endless amount of terms and theories necessary to succeed on the psychology and sociology section of the MCAT, know that I was right. # Is the pg KA psych/soc doc still relevant for /? Factors affecting patients' behavior and psychological well-being have an impact on overall health, and are important for all physicians to consider. So I just finished my MCAT on 8/and think my Psyc/Sociology section went surprisingly well, which I entirely have Khan Academy to thank. I feel that the pg notes cover everything, and use KA as the supplement in the case of needing more detailed, superfluous information. The link below contains several documents containing notes created based on Khan Academy videos. All Psychology/Sociology Notes from Khan Academy. Hey everyone!
