Soon after, Claudio Naranjo, MD, and other psychologists in Berkeley, CA, integrated the Enneagram with emerging developments in modern psychology Oscar Ichazo (born) is the Bolivian-born founder of the Arica School which he established in Ichazo's Enneagram of Personality theories are part of a larger body of teaching Oscar Ichazo is the originator of Integral Philosophy, which includes the Enneagram Theory of the Ego-Fixations. His groundbreaking work underscores the need to Oscar Ichazo, the originator of the Enneagram Theory and Practice, presents a Teaching of the enneagram and its application in his book, The Enneagrams of the Divine Protoanalysis is the original system of personality devised by Oscar Ichazo and differs quite vastly from what is used in the modern day known as "Clinical Enneagram" or Enneagram Oscar Ichazo, Arica, & Protoanalysis. In researching the Enneagram, I've been able to trace most (but not all) theories to four parties which I believe to be the Missing: pdf Oscar also originated a new form of logic called "Trialectics," the logic of cycles, and introduced his original and complete Enneagramatic Theory, in which were presented The roots of the Enneagram personality types begin with Oscar Ichazo's ego-types and his related Enneagrams of fixations, traps, holy ideas, passions, and virtues Oscar Ichazo's enneagrams (the nine-pointed figure shown above) analyze the complete human being, progressing systematically from the lowest aspects of the human condition to the highest State of Mind in his 'Protoanalytical Theory, System and Method.' Oscar also originated a new form of logic called "Trialectics," the logic of cycles, and introduced his original and complete Enneagramatic Theory, in which were presented his philosophical Teachings for the clarification of the subjective ego process, using the enneagram as the basis of his Teachings, Theory, Method, and Practice In the late s, Oscar Ichazo, founder of the Arica School, placed nine personality types around the Enneagram diagram.
