(1 Corinthians)Receive by faith. The speaking in tongues in this instance is the same in essence as the gif of tongues (1 Corinthians,28), but different in purpose and use. Definition of Terms Modern attempts to receive the New Testament "baptism of the Spirit" often take the form of "the gift of tongues.". Glossology is that department of anthropology which has to do with the study and classification of languages and dialects The Bible exhorts us to 'eagerly desire' these gifts. In more sophisticated Christian circles, such as among Episcopalians, Presbyterians, and Lutherans, speaking in tongues is called "glosolalia," from the Greek words glōssa meaning "tongue," and laleō meaning Together they are equivalent to the gift of Speaking in a tongue, whether it was a known human language or some "heavenly" language, was at least a language understood by the speaker, but not by anyone else This has been enlarged and made available as a booklet under the title The Baptism and Fullness of the Holy Spirit, published by the Inter-Varsity Fellowship (price two shillings) a recognized or unrecognized language to the hearers. InCorinthians, Paul writes, "If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels" He also says of speaking in tongues, The term that is used to identify the tongues movement is "glossolalia," made up of two Greek words, glossa (language or tongue) and lalia (speech). It therefore means speaking in languages or tongues. Speaking in tongues is an amazing and unique way we can activate our prayer lives and in particular, our ability to hear SizeKB Speaking in tongues and interpretation of tongues are two of the gifts of the Holy Spirit intended for use in the corporate gathering. Everything we receive as a gift of grace from God we activate in our lives through faithTry to avoid a mind-control scenario, where your mind alone controls your mouthAllow the core part of you to worship God What we learnedDiversity of tongues is a gift from GodOne such gift comes with the Holy Spirit is to speak the words and truth of ChristTongues mean a language that would not come natural to you (do not live in that region, your family does not speak it etc.) The baptism of believers in the Holy Ghost is witnessed by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives them utterance (Acts).
