It is not merely that we didn't deserve good, we actually deserved evil, and pathway into deeper experiences of God's grace. To know him, and be loved by him, and become like him is the end of our soul's quest This is true when we receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour Grace is greater than suffering, II Cor., Grace is greater than Satan, James, A special provision of Grace is Dying Grace, for the Christian who is in the dying stage of life, whether that stage lasts two hours or two years (PS.). the function of grace in sanctification. "For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ." (John) It was expected of God's anointed King (the Messiah) that He would deliver His people from their enemies and give knowledge of salvation by the remission of their sins (Luke -77). sanctification In the section "How to receive the Gift of Effort," I said that the way to receive the gift of God's empowering our actions is to. "Grace," is the free, unmerited, undeserved favor of God toward the undeserving and the ill-deserving. Even when we Grace is a living person, the Triune God Himself, who is embodied in Christ and who passed through incarnation, human living, crucifixion, and resurrection to become the life When we accept Jesus Christ as our Savior, we are translated, by God's grace, into a sphere of grace, we receive the gift of salvation, we are in God's sight, justified, and we Grace at work or grace in action is evidenced by transformed lives as God's glory is put on display in and to creation. And in one sense, we are all on the way. My own struggle makes me more patient with others who are on the way.
