What does he say? Further, the book discusses the fruit of such a union with God's will: happiness Uniformity in all Things. Behold while Saul was persecuting the Church, God enlightened him and converted him. Behold while Saul was persecuting the Church, God enlightened him and converted him. These seven short chapters, not simply prone to abstract speculation, explore concretely how to make one's own will uniform with God's through the hardships of this life Uniformity With God's Will by Saint Alphonsus de Liguori. The essence of perfection is to embrace the will of God in all things, prosperous or adverse. In prosperity, even sinners find it easy to unite them-selves to the divine will; but it takes saints to unite themselves to God's will when things go wrong and are painful to self-love These seven short chapters, not simply prone to abstract speculation, explore concretely how to make one's own will uniform with God's through the hardships of this life. What does Saul do? The essence of perfection is to embrace the will of God in all things, pros-perous or adverse. Translated by Thomas W. Tobin, R. "Perfection is founded entirely on the love of God: 'Charity is the bond of A single act of uniformity with the divine will suffices to make a saint. Nothing else but to offer himself to do God's will: "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do16?" What does Saul In this precious booklet, St. Alphonsus Ligouri explains the importance of conforming one's will to God's and how to do so; how to gain peace of mind and serenity by trusting in Uniformity With God's Will Saint Alphonsus de Liguori "Perfection is founded entirely on the love of God: 'Charity is the bond of perfection;' and perfect love of God means the Perfection is founded entirely on the love of God: "Charity is the bond of perfection2;" and perfect love of God means the complete union of our will with God's: "The principal effect of love is so to unite the wills of those who love each other as to make them will the same things3." by St. Alphonsus de Liguori. In prosperity, even sinners find it easy to unite themselves to the divine will; but it takes saints to unite themselves to God's will when things go wrong and are painful to self-love A single act of uniformity with the divine will suffices to make a saint.
