Although we are on another Trail, all the subjects are inter-connected, like everything in the universe, from the galaxies and stars to our thoughts, dreams, motions and words. The Law of Correspondence: This Universal Law states that the principles or laws of physics that explain the physical world. A Universal Law is a description of a principle or regularity that does not change – even if the description can be changed, improved or extended. For this reason a Universal Law has to be seen as a means to understand how things work, but not as an invariable truth. Therefore, we must engage in actions that. ü Love is not a force, it is a tool. Universal Laws. The Law of Divine Oneness: The Law of Divine Oneness helps us to understand that we live in a world where everything is connected to everything else. These are the Laws that govern all things, high to low, throughout the known universe. These laws, ranging from the Law of Divine Oneness to the Law of Gender, teach us about interconnectedness, vibration, attraction, and balance. ü Love is not a feeling. The Universal Laws offer a framework for understanding how energy, thoughts, and actions shape our reality. The principles that operate in the outer universe, discoverable by scientists, are called natural laws. But there are subtler ones, unique unto itself. The Law of Action: The Law of Action must be applied. This implies that the value of a Universal ü Love cannot be offended, because it is invulnerable, immutable, universal and neutral.
