Add ticks to pdf

Corner Caveat Click the Insert Tab in the top left corner. Select the PDF document you want to fill in and sign. After Acrobat uploads the file, sign in to complete the fillable form. _xticks(list(_xticks()) + extraticks) Here we use the Axes object extracted from the Lines2D sequence returned by plot. Try DocHub to simply Add tick to lines = (x,y) ax = lines[0].axes. Click Next. Normally if you are using the OO interface you would already have a reference to the Axes up front and you would call plot on that instead of on pyplot. Use the tools in the Sign panel to fill in the form fields and add your PDF signature.
