Originally composed for presentation, in the form of lectures, to students at the US Army Infantry School at Fort Benning, these were assembled into a book by an officer of the US Army in the course of his official Battle Leadership. And at no time are those lessons more important than in the heat of combat with lives on the line. The key is in preparation before a conflict Battle Leadership helps you be prepared by teaching such essential skills as: How to handle different personalities under extreme stress. How to prepare your troops psychologically for combat. Although the technologies of war will always change, the insights of great leaders are timeless.
