We will explore which areas in our lives are in conflict and discover how the body has its own knowing about that conflict which is expressed through pain or a chronic symptom. It is the (indigestible) feeling of the event that impacts a specific part of the body (stomach, responsible for digesting) and triggers a biological reaction (vomiting). We will explore which areas in our lives are in conflict and discover how "THE COMPLETE DICTIONARY OF AILMENTS AND DISEASES" EXTRACT I can use the information contained in this book to effect changes at the level of my emotions. The emotional reactions to an event are therefore the basis of the Bio coding system. The document discusses the concept of bio coding illness to understand the root causes of disease. It states that emotional stress and unresolved psychic distress from ancestors can lead to illness, and that diseases usually originate from fear-based conflicts. It is characterized by inflammation, muscular stiffness and pain, which correspond, on the metaphysical level, to the concept of bio coding illness to understand the root causes of disease. By doing the following exercise, I can activate my emotional memory to make it possible, from my head to my heart ©, for some part of my emotions to be healed in love. Bio coding® is a pioneering technique to code with precision any kind of symptom (physical, emotional and mental) and resolve their underlying bio-emotional and ancestral cause at the cellular level through a signature methodology.
