They publishes the current version of DC Heroes, which I also have not seen. As gamers and designers reading and enjoying the poem, we quickly realised it focused on Beowulf's struggles against the various Monsters he faced and his relationships with the folk that he met, such as Unferth, who was at first critical of the hero but then One final note: the MEGS system (hopefully with a revision or two) does appear in the Blood of Heroes superhero RPG by Pulsar Games, which I have not seen. Pulsar Games, the publisher of Blood of Heroes, offered to sell the intellectual property pertaining to the game system. It was The BLOOD of HEROES The Superhero and Villain RolePlaying Game. Meanwhile, the DC Universe license went to West End Games.
