II. The Meaning of Discipleship Bill Hull (, p) defines discipleship as “the ongoing life of a disciple” and elaborates further as follows: Ship added to the end of disciple D. Discipleship is the fastest way to fulfill the Great Commission. It is mission-oriented, relational, and practical The key focus of this article is the problematic of applying principles of discipleship that were present in the context of Jewish culture, on the Church today, since our analysis reveals that understanding of discipleship today does not correspond entirely to the understanding of that concept in Jesus' time Discipleship Personally Defined: I define discipleship in this way: “Equipping God-fearers to be followers of Jesus who retell the Gospel, model righteous behavior per God’s ways and Jesus’ A third theological concept of discipleship identifies with imago dei – the scriptural revelation that God created all people in his image. For example, chile-con-carne means chile with flesh. “Carnal” desires are fleshly desires, etc.) In-the-fleshness is what God used to reveal Himself to us in the person of Jesus Christ (John and John) Discipleship is a continuous submission process to God with no completion date but instead progresses toward maturity in Christ. It was a well-established concept in Seven Principles. Illustrations: Suppose you had your choice of salaries on a job, cent doubled each Notice that this brings discipleship around full circle. “Carnal” discipleship. Incarnational means in-the-flesh. (1) Biblical discipleship is incarnational. (“Carnation” means “flesh.” For example, chile-con-carne means chile with flesh. Incarnational means in-the-flesh. This concept implies that God calls all disciples to Seven Principles. Discipleship means growing spiritually, including painful experiences, struggles, and doubts – Kairos. God uses Kairos to mature believers in becoming like Christ Hence, this paper attempts to explain the meaning, importance, and models of discipleship from Scripture, the writings of Ellen White, and other relevant literature. (1) Biblical discipleship is incarnational. (“Carnation” means “flesh.”. It is multiplication versus addition. The study affirms that the disciple-making ministry is a command given by Jesus. Ultimately, that’s how we fulfill the man-date of Matthew The Concept of Discipleship Discipleship was not a new idea in the New Testament times. Disciples are to turn around and make other disciples.
