Where it is necessary for you to pursue something, do so with discretion and moderation. Translated by Elizabeth Carter Some things are in our control and others not. In our power are thought, impulse, will to get and will to avoid, and, in a word, everything which is our own doing. By Epictetus. Things not in our control are body, property, reputation, command, and, in one word, whatever are not our One. Of all existing things some are in our power, and others are not in our power. Things not in our power include the body, property, reputation, office, and, in a word, everything which is not our own doing Instructions. Some things are within your power, and some are not.
