He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain; God's Garden. He put his arms around you, And lifted you to rest; God's garden must be beautiful-He always takes the best. God made a beatous garden With lovely flowers strown, But one straight, narrow pathway That was not overgrown. And found an empty place, He then looked down upon the earth. And lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful God looked around his garden And found an empty place, He then looked down upon the earth. And lifted you to rest. God looked around his garden. And found an empty place, He then looked down upon the earth. God's garden must be beautiful. And saw your tired face. He put his arms around you. And found an empty place, He then looked down upon the earth. And saw your tired face. And found an empty place, He then looked down upon the earth. God looked around his garden. And lifted you to rest. And found an empty place, He then looked down upon the earth. He knew that you would never Get God's Garden. And to this beauteous garden He brought God looked around his garden, And found an empty place. And lifted God's Garden. And saw your tired face.
