New York Times Bestseller * National Book Award Nominee * Winner of the Edgar Award for Best Juvenile Mystery
Its wintertime at Greenglass House. The creaky smugglers inn is always quiet during this season, and twelve-year-old Milo, the innkeepers adopted son, plans to spend his holidays relaxing. But on the first icy night of vacation, out of nowhere, the guest bell rings. Then rings again. And again... Soon Milo's home is bursting with odd, secretive guests, each one bearing a strange story that is somehow connected to the rambling old house. As objects go missing and tempers flare, Milo and Meddy, the cooks daughter, must decipher clues and untangle the web of deepening mysteries to discover the truth about Greenglass House and themselves.
