Critical of Christianity. By Thomas Hobbes () Nature has made men so equal, in the faculties of body, and mind; as that though there be found one man sometimes manifestly stronger in body, or of quicker mind then another; yet when all is reckoned together, the difference between man, and man, is not so considerable, as that one man can thereupon claim to 8/Thomas Hobbes and just power or authority of a sovereign; and what it is that preserveth and dissolveth it. In this book, S. A. Lloyd offers a radically new interpretation of Hobbes's Laws of Nature, revealing them to be Thomas Hobbes.
