2020 Ezra Jack Keats Award Winner for Illustration2020 Ezra Jack Keats Honor for WritingA Bank Street College of Education Best Childrens Book of 2020Affirmations of black childhood abound, and whimsical wishes float like dandelion fluff. Equally as imaginative as the lyrical text, Corrins boldly colored, textured illustrations beautifully capture the buoyant spirit of Layla, a brown girl exuding confidence, comfortable in her own skinindoors and out. Well-illustrated poetry of the best kind that will leave sunshine in its wake.STARRED REVIEW,KirkusSeven-year-old Layla loves life! So she keeps a happiness book. What is happiness for her? For you?Spirited and observant, Layla is a child whos been given room to grow, making happiness both thoughtful and intimate. Its her dad talking about growing-up in South Carolina; her mom reading poetry; her best friend Juan, the community garden, and so much more. Written by poet Mariahadessa Ekere Tallie and illustrated by Ashleigh Corrin, this is a story of flourishing within family and community.
