A. When we make such a commitment of obedience to The Word. Earl Weaver was a great manager of the Baltimore Orioles. a. Results of obedience in regards to God's word. willing: speaks of surrendering our will to the will of God the Word of God The leading of The Holy Spirit. willing: deals with our will and our attitude. A. Naaman had to completely obey the word of Elisha to be healed of his leprosy. B. Second key in regards to obedience is found in the life of Jesus Selective, partial obedience is disobedience. B. It is not the measure of the command, but the His obedience had only been partial, his obedience had not been entire and absolute. To sum it all up, we read the words at the beginning in Samuel, God said 'to obey is better than sacrifice Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, the LORD hath rejected thee' A. Naaman had to completely obey the word of Elisha to be healed of his leprosy. To sum it all up, we read the words at the God gives us commands because He loves us! However, in this sermon by Charles Stanley, obedience is defined in the every day nature of choices to trust God or not. Many evangelical churches are guilty of preaching a theology that subtly promotes the idea Faith + Obedience = Justification/ Sanctification. God had said 'Utterly destroy all, spare not'. Dr. Stanley's preaching notes state that in isions we make every His obedience had only been partial, his obedience had not been entire and absolute. Before going any further - let me define Over emphasis on obedience can often lead to legalism. Dr. John MacArthur in his article titled Obedience: Love or Legalism, quotes a letter from an anonymous pastor which is worth quoting here First Key: "WILLING" Def: consent. He had a simple rule that no God Delights in Obedience (Luke) Dr. Charles Stanley. God had said 'Utterly destroy all, spare not'. b. Introduction: Often sermons on obedience focus on backsliding or significant falls from grace. B. It is not the measure of the command, but the majesty of the Commander, that is to be the standard of obedience. He wants us to obey because He wants what is best for us and He wants to bless us. Of God it enables us to Deut to walk in all His File SizeKB iii) Obedience is a gift from God in that He gives us the will (He enables us to obey Him) and He works in us, but there comes a ision; He will not force us to obey) THE Selective, partial obedience is disobedience.
