Step 1 - How to Have Fun With Online Poker

Everyone in this world wants to achieve success and happiness. No one can ignore the importance of setting goals and live life with discipline. But it is not necessary that we gain success and satisfaction by extensive studying, setting goals and living with discipline and bankroll management. Working intensively and purposefully can sometimes be boring and painful experience for us. Some people can find results and rewards out of it but they actually don't enjoy it. It can be an important way to motivate ourselves to work hard but no motivation is as powerful as having fun.

We can earn a lot of money and have fun while playing Poker. The popularity of Poker is increasing worldwide day by day. It is a fast track to riches and glory. A disciplined and intelligent person can be more successful at poker. It is a better option than working for some company the whole day and earning a small amount of money.

Playing poker is enjoyable in order to make money. We must play on the first two cards, the free card, semi-bluffing, inducing bluffs, playing when a pair flops, staying with a draw, playing trash hands, playing in wild games, desperation bets, reading hands, psychology of a player and much more.

We must not find ourselves frustrated on a longer downswing at the poker table because playing with the feeling of anger or frustration is wrong. We must try to be happy and relaxed by facial expression as there are relationships between facial expressions and state of mind. If we are happy, our brain will subconsciously be a little happier. We can also read the books on Poker with great explanations on how a hand is being played. The thinking process mentioned in this book can easily be applied to both cash games and live tournament. Also, making friends among other poker players is a good idea. Doing so will bring us a social side otherwise it will be a loner's game. Those friends will support us through our bad times and help us to develop in the good runs.

We must play in certain why to make a difference and win. We should cash out some portion of our winnings and does something fun for it. We can go out and see a movie, go for a long trip or buy a computer or a DVD player. There are many ways to get enjoyment out of the game. We have to figure this out for ourselves. We should not neglect the fun sides of the game. Being at a good state of mind will make everything easier and will allow us to keep it up. No job is worth being miserable and poker is no exception. It teaches us to be our own boss, earn money and have fun.
