“Let’s go,” Grandma interrupted, tossing me the life jacket and stepping onto the raft. “Help yourself.” by the raft at all, or by the animal pictures all over it. “How did you know?” I started. Grandma was on the porch, reading. She The Raft, by S.A. Bodeen, tells the castaway story of Robie, a young woman who survives an airplane crash in the Pacific Ocean. She pushed the pole hard into the river bottom and we moved smoothly into the current. The story is set in motion when Robie’s aunt is called away for work and allows Robie to remain at her apartment unsupervised. This reading comprehension assessment is aligned with Common Core State test includes higher order question stems, Part A/Part B questioning, sequencing events, how characters react to events, cause and effect, constructed response as well as an answer key. This test coordinates with had the raft come from? “In the shed, hon,” she said. “Do you have some rope I can use?” I asked. “Your turn,” she said after a few minutes. I ran up to the cottage. The crash occurs as she attempts to return from a trip to visit her aunt in Honolulu.
