

Translations: Team Ace - Unilag/14/en

The successful implementation of ACE first gives users an estimate of their carbon footprint, then gives them a number of climate-friendly tasks to carry out. Upon completion of these tasks, users are awarded points in form of a CIR Score. The CIR score represents the positive contribution of the user to the environment.